HFF225 – PHILOSOPHY AND CURRENT ISSUES

1. SYNOPSIS

Topics to be covered in this course include the relation between philosophy and the National Education Philosophy and Rukun Negara (National Principles). Philosophy is used as a tool to refine the culture of thought in life through the art and methods of thinking as well as through our understanding of the concept of the human person. Key branches in philosophy, namely epistemology, metaphysics, and ethics, are discussed in the context of current issues. Emphasis is given to philosophy as the basis for intercultural dialogue and for fostering common values. At the end of this course, students will be able to see the disciplines of study as a comprehensive and integrated body of knowledge.

2. LEARNING OUTCOMES

12. IMPORTANT REMINDER

- Mandatory Access to USM E-Learning Platform: All course-related materials, including lectures, assignments, and assessments, must be accessed exclusively through the USM E-Learning platform. Students are expected to regularly check for updates and ensure they have reliable access.
- Online Attendance Requirement: Students are required to mark their attendance through the E-Learning Portal in accordance with the provided lecture schedule. Failure to do so may result in being marked absent for that session.
- Simultaneous Quiz and Test Administration: Both quiz and test will be conducted at the same time across all campuses, with no exceptions or rescheduling allowed. Students must ensure they are present and prepared, as there will be no opportunity for a retake.
- Coursework Completion Requirement: Students are required to complete all components of the coursework. Failure to do so without providing a valid reason will result in an automatic F grade for the course.
- Minimum Grade Requirement for Graduation: A minimum grade of C is mandatory to meet the graduation requirements for this course. Students are advised to perform consistently across all assessments to meet this threshold.
